Name	Paolo De Buono
Committee	Governance and Policy Committee
Date of Presentation	3/19/2019
Topic of Presentation	Not Excluding Family Status, Marital Status, Gender Expression, and Gender Identity from the Code of Conduct
Topic or Issue	Update to Code of Conduct Policy (Agenda Item 13.a for the March 19, 2019 regular meeting of the Governance and Policy Committee)
Details	The proposed Code of Conduct, in its clause on members' obligation to "respect and treat others fairly," mirrors s. 1 of the Ontario Human Rights Code except that it excludes the following areas (in the order as listed in the Human Rights Code: gender identity, gender expression, marital status, and family status.
Action Requested	I respectfully request that these excluded terms (gender identity, gender expression, marital status, and family status) be added to this clause of the Code of Conduct so that the Code of Conduct reflects completely and not in part the terms/areas as listed in the Human Rights Code since all areas of section 1 of the Human Rights Code are relevant for members of the TCDSB's school communities.

Appendix A - Guidelines

Preamble:

The Toronto Catholic District School Board is an inclusive community rooted in the love of Christ. We educate students to grow in grace and knowledge and to lead lives of faith, hope and charity. Through our Catholic values, we believe in the worth and dignity of every person and that people thrive in a safe, healthy and compassionate environment. One of the goals of the Board's Multi-Year Strategic Plan requires that, in order to create equitable learning environments for all students, we will provide all students with safe, healthy learning environments by promoting a positive school climate, inclusive and accepting of all pupils, ~~and by promoting the prevention of bullying.~~

Purpose of the Code of Conduct

The TCDSB Code of Conduct is consistent with the requirements set out in the Provincial Code of Conduct, by establishing standards of behaviour for all members of the school community. The following goals are foundational to the Board's Code of Conduct:

1. To ensure that all members of the school community, especially people in positions of authority, are treated with respect and dignity.
2. To promote responsible citizenship by encouraging appropriate participation in the civic life of the school community.
3. To maintain an environment where conflict and difference can be addressed in a manner characterized by respect and civility.
4. To encourage the use of non-violent means to resolve conflict.
5. To promote the safety of people in the schools and board sites.
6. To discourage the use of alcohol, and illegal drugs, and, except by a medical cannabis user, cannabis.
7. To prevent bullying in schools.

Standards of Behaviour

Respect, Civility, and Responsible Citizenship

All members of the school community must:

- respect and comply with all applicable federal, provincial, and municipal laws;
- demonstrate honesty and integrity;
- respect differences in people, their ideas, and their opinions;
- treat one another with dignity and respect at all times, and especially when there is disagreement;
- respect and treat others fairly, regardless of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status, or disability;
- respect the rights of others;
- show proper care and regard for school property and the property of others;
- take appropriate measures to help those in need;
- seek assistance from a member of the school staff, if necessary, to resolve conflict peacefully;
- respect all members of the school community, especially persons in positions of authority;
- respect the need of others to work in an environment that is conducive to learning and teaching;
- not swear at a teacher or at another person in a position of authority.

Safety

All members of the school community must not:

- engage in bullying behaviours;
- commit sexual assault;
- traffic in weapons or illegal drugs;
- give alcohol to a minor;
- commit robbery;
- be in possession of any weapon, including firearms;

- use any object to threaten or intimidate another person;
- cause injury to any person with an object;
- be in possession of, or be under the influence of, or provide others with alcohol or illegal drugs;
- inflict or encourage other to inflict bodily harm on another person;
- engage in hate propaganda and other forms of behaviour motivated by hate or bias;
- commit an act of vandalism that causes extensive damage to school property or to property located on the premises of the school.

Role and Responsibilities

Toronto Catholic District School Board

The Board will provide direction to its schools to ensure opportunity, academic excellence, and accountability in the education system. It is the responsibility of the Board to:

- develop policies that set out how schools will implement and enforce the provincial Code of Conduct and all other rules that it develops that are related to the provincial standards that promote and support respect, civility, responsible citizenship, and safety;
- establish a process that clearly communicates the provincial Code of Conduct and TCDSB's code of conduct to all parents, students, principals, teachers, other school staff, and members of the school community in order to obtain their commitment and support;
- review these policies regularly with those listed above;
- seek input from school councils, Parent Involvement Committees, and the Special Education Advisory Committee;
- develop effective intervention strategies and respond to all infractions related to the standards for respect, civility, responsible citizenship, and safety;
- provide opportunities for all of the staff to acquire the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary to develop and maintain academic excellence in a safe learning and teaching environment.

Principals

Under the direction of the Director of Education, principals take a leadership role in daily operation of a school. They provide this leadership by:

- demonstrating care for the school community and a commitment to academic excellence in a safe, inclusive, and accepting teaching and learning environment;
- holding everyone under their author accountable for his or her behaviour and actions;
- empowering students to be positive leaders in their school and community;
- communicating regularly and meaningfully with all members of their school community.

Teachers and Other School Staff

Under the leadership of their principals, teachers and other school staff maintain order in the school and are expected to hold everyone to the highest standard of respectful and responsible behaviour. As role models, teachers and other school staff uphold these high standards when they;

- help students work to their full potential and develop their sense of self-worth;
- empower students to be positive leaders in their classroom, school, and community;
- communicate regularly and meaningfully with parents;
- maintain consistent standards of behaviour for all students;
- demonstrate respect for all students, staff, parents, volunteers, and other members of the school community;
- prepare students for the full responsibilities of citizenship.

Students

Students are to be treated with respect and dignity, In return, they must demonstrate respect for themselves, for others, and for the responsibilities of citizenship through acceptable behaviour, Respect and responsibility are demonstrated when a student:

- comes to school prepared, on time, and ready to learn;
- shows respect for himself or herself, for others, and for those in authority;
- refrains from bringing anything to school that may compromise the safety of others;
- follows the established rules and takes responsibility for his or her own actions.

Parents

Parents play an important role in the education of their children, and can support the efforts of school staff in maintaining a safe, inclusive, accepting, and respectful learning environment for all students. Parents fulfil their role when they:

- show an active interest in their child's school work and progress;
- communicate regularly with the school;
- help their child be neat, appropriately dressed, and prepared for school;
- ensure that their child attends school regularly and on time;
- promptly report to the school their child's absence or late arrival;
- show that they are familiar with the provincial Code of Conduct, the board's code of conduct, and school rules;
- encourage and assist their child in following the rules of behaviour;
- assist school staff in dealing with disciplinary issues involving their child.

The Toronto Catholic District School Board will:
