Improving Inclusiveness
for the TCDSB's LGBT Students

we BELONG

- Inclusiveness is directly linked to student achievement and well being.
- Inclusiveness is directly linked to Catholicity.
- LGBT students are recognized as a protected group in our most fundamental laws including the Education Act. There is no Catholic exception.

The screenshot displays the TCDSB website's navigation and content. At the top, a red header bar contains the board's name and tagline, along with links for 'Find A School', 'Sitemap', and 'Question'. Below this is a dark red navigation menu with links for 'Board', 'Schools', 'Programs And Services', 'News', 'Calendar', 'Students', and 'Parent'. A breadcrumb trail indicates the current location: 'Board > TCDSB Administration > Administrative Offices > School Superintendents'. The main content area features a sidebar with a 'Superintendents' link and a main section titled 'School Superintendents' which includes a list of area links and a map of the superintendent areas.

The people who are targeted by racism, homophobia, heterosexism and gender bias are not responsible for initiating these convos and building the tables where they should be happening. We have to be able to choose courage over comfort.

It's #internationaldayofpink! Today, John Paul II high school joins forces with @TPSOperations to celebrate by highlighting student-based anti-bullying initiatives such as singing performances, spoken words and other presentations.

we BELONG

- Our communication about our LGBT students is not as inclusive as it could be.
- We may be sending the following message:
“We belong, but they don’t.”
- The Senior Management Team and Communications should lead in sharing LGBT-inclusive communication.

ROOTED IN CHRIST

“Live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, abounding in thanksgiving.” – Colossians, 2:6-7
