Topic: Essential Service Legislation

Whereas:	labour disruption does not contribute in a positive way to student achievement and wellbeing; and
Whereas:	labour disruption can cause hardship to parents, students and education workers impacting student learning and physical and mental health; and
Whereas:	labour disruption can impact the economy, and parent and teachers' financial security and stability; and
Whereas:	labour rights, employee rights, working conditions, safety considerations, and salary and benefits can still be negotiated

Therefore be it Resolved that:

OCSTA petition the Ministry of Education to draft legislation to define all education workers as providers of essential services.
