DELEGATION REGISTRATION FORM FOR BOARD, STANDING OR OTHER COMMITTEES

Key Issue(s):

Seniority over French Language skills when placing teachers in the French immersion program.

Brief Summary of the Topic of Deputation:

Since my son entered the school, Holy Name, in JK, they had moved perfectly capable french teachers and EC from his class to replace them with non-speaking teachers and EC that have more seniority. Good english teachers with really good intentions to teach French but not qualified to do so, which defeats the whole purpose of french immersion teaching, when the classes are not done in french as it should be for them to be bilingual.

We, as parents, do not understand the politics of the board and the union, in which seniority is a higher ranking to teach a French immersion class than the requirement of French, which for us does not make any sense, as the kids' education should be the main objective of this decision.

Action Requested:

We want to advocate that future decisions on moving teachers around as a consequence of on-line learning and covid is based on the french qualification and not on seniority, so the kids' education is put first and not the negotiation table of the union.
